

Dessert Auction

St. Mark's Saturday Night Fever, Saturday, October 17, 2009

Are you one of those people who has "Baking Fever" this time of year? We need your fabulous desserts for the St. Mark's School Dinner Auction. One of the fun events at the Dinner Auction is the silent auction for desserts. Since the meal does not include dessert, we need your "after dinner sweets" to make the dinner complete.

It's as easy as 1-2-3:

1. Make a dessert or buy one from your favorite bakery. Cakes, pies, cookies, tortes and confections are just a few of the possibilities. You can also donate cash for a dessert and we will purchase one in your name. (Please, no beverages or frozen desserts this year.)
2. Dress up your dessert with an attractive presentation such as a cake/pie stand, platters, plates, trays, baskets, candy dishes, or your own creative idea. These are all ways of increasing the bidding on your dessert. Great bargains on glassware are available at Tuesday Morning, Ross, Cost Plus or Big Lots.
3. Label your dessert with your name and a brief description of the tasty treat. Bring it to The Grove on Saturday morning during the set up, or if you are attending the Dinner Auction, just bring your dessert with you and give it to the attendant at the dessert table prior to 6 p.m.
